

FAITH KNOWLEDGE QUIZ FOR ADULTS

October 4, 2020

"What's In a Name?"

Msgr. Pat Stilla

(Scroll down to the bottom of page 2 for the correct answers)

1. On October 4th the Church usually celebrates the feastday of a popular Saint but, since this day falls on a Sunday in 2020, the feastday is not celebrated this year. The Saint's name is:
  - a. St. Anthony of Padova;
  - b. St. Theresa of the Child Jesus;
  - c. St. Francis of Assisi;
  - d. St. John the Baptist.
2. The names: "Natalie, Angelo, Celeste, Lucia and Natasha" are all associated with this Feastday:
  - a. All Saints Day;
  - b. Easter;
  - c. Christmas;
  - d. none of the above.
3. Girls who are named, "Dolores" are named after
  - a. St. Dolores of Egypt;
  - b. Our Lady of Sorrows;
  - c. St. Dorothy;
  - d. St. Dolores of Rome.
4. The names, "Manuella, Nazareno, Dominic, Christian and Salvador" are all derived from:
  - a. the name and life of Jesus;
  - b. the name and life of the Virgin Mary;
  - c. the name and life of Mary Magdalene;
  - d. all of the above.
5. The name, "Christopher" literally means:
  - a. Disciple of Christ;
  - b. Follower of Christ;
  - c. Bearer of Christ;
  - d. Christ-like.
6. St. Elizabeth wanted her son named, "John" (the Baptist) because the name means:
  - a. Man of Faith;
  - b. God's gracious gift;
  - c. A Prophet of God ;
  - d. A Baptizer.
7. The name, "Paul" is a Latin version of the Hebrew name:
  - a. Lazarus;
  - b. Elijah;
  - c. Joshua;
  - d. Saul.

8. The names, "Concetta, Assunta, Immaculata, Carmel, and Rosaria" are derived from:
- a. events and names associated with Jesus;
  - b. words which mean "devotion and prayer";
  - c. events and names associated with Mary;
  - d. words which mean, "perfection through holiness and piety".
9. The names, "Joy, Lily, Liliana and Anastasia" are all derived from this Feastday:
- a. The Immaculate Conception;
  - b. Easter;
  - c. The Annunciation of Mary;
  - d. Christmas.
10. The names, "Petrov, Pierre, Pedra, Pedro, Pietro and Pierette" all mean:
- a. paternity;
  - b. commitment;
  - c. perseverance;
  - d. rock.
11. The names "Lajos, Luigi, Louis, Louise and Luis are all derived from:
- a. the name, Luke;
  - b. the name Lalibert;
  - c. the name Aloysius;
  - d. the name of Julius Caesar.
12. "Jacqueline, Iakov, Tiago, Giacomo and Séamas are variations of the same name of:
- a. John;
  - b. James;
  - c. Jude;
  - d. Joshua.

CORRECT ANSWERS

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1. c. October 4 is always the Feast of Francis. 2. c. They mean, 'birth' (Natalie), 'angel' (Angelo) 'heavens' (Celeste), , 'light' (Lucia) and 'birth of the Lord' (Natasha, in Russian). 3. b. 'Dolores' is the Latin word for 'sorrows'. 4. a. All refer to Jesus: 'Immanuel', 'Nazarene', 'belonging to the Lord', 'follower of Christ' and, 'the Saviour'. 5. c. From Latin: 'Christi-fero' or 'Christ bearer'. It is said that Jesus, gave this name to a man who carried Him across a river when He appeared to him as an infant, in a vision. 6. b. Elizabeth who was known to be barren, believed that her son was truly a gift from God. | 7. d. The Risen Lord who miraculously appeared to Paul on the road to Damascus called him by his real Hebrew name when He said, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?" 8. c. First 3 are Marian events. 'Carmel' is a title of Mary &amp; 'Rosaria' means, 'of the Rosary'. 9. b. 'Joy' and 'Lilies' remind us of Easter. 'Anastasia' is the Greek word for Resurrection. 10. d. They are all variations of 'Peter' (in English) &amp; 'Cephas' (in Aramaic), meaning, 'rock'. 11. c. Variations of the name, 'Aloysius', in Hungarian, Italian, French, English &amp; Spanish. 12. b. 'James' in French (feminine), Russian, Spanish, Italian and Irish Gaelic. |
|---|---|