CORPUS CHRISTI MASSES & PROCESSIONS: NEXT WEEKEND

It has been our custom at St. Pat's for many years, to celebrate the Solemn Feast Corpus Christi annually by processing indoors with the Blessed Eucharist at the weekend Masses of Saturday: 5 pm and Sunday: 8:30 am, and (weather permitting) to process outdoors after the 10:30 am Mass and celebrate Benediction in our Prayer Garden. These are some photo souvenirs of past celebrations.

Q. What are the 'Divine Praises' and when do we recite them in Church?

A. The term, 'Divine Praises' is the title of a litany-like liturgical prayer which is recited by the celebrant and the people whenever the Rite of Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is celebrated.

In Reparation

The original version of this prayer was much shorter and was first introduced into the Liturgy of the Church around the year 1800. It was designed to bring praise (blessedness) to the holy Names of God and of His Angels and Saints, in reparation for the many times that their names were profaned.

Additions

As different devotions gained in popularity, the Church added these to the original list and may add others in the future. For instance, the following sets were not included in the prayer until the end of the 19th Century.

◆ Added 'Jesus' Devotions

"Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart" and "Blessed be His most Precious Blood";

◆ Added 'Marian' Praises

"Blessed be her Holy and Immaculate Conception" and "Blessed be her glorious Assumption"

'Blessed be her glorious Assumption'

'Blessed be God in His Angels and in His Saints' and Assumed into heaven (body and soul) at the end of her life. These two feasts are celebrated annually on December 8th and on August 15th.

◆ St. Joseph Added "Blessed be Saint Joseph, her most chaste spouse";

◆ Adding 'The Spirit' The most recent addition to the list of 'Praises' pays homage to the 3rd Person of the Trinity.

After praising the Father and the Son, we add, "Blessed be the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete" (Counsellor). In the future, the Church may add others, like, "Blessed be

| the Divine Mercy of Christ", etc.
