OUR FIRST "WHITE MASS" ON OCTOBER 18TH

Our Parish will join many Catholic communities across Canada in celebrating our first "White Mass" to honour those who work in health-care. It is called a "White Mass" in reference to the white coats that physicians and medical personnel sometimes wear. Our Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral on the Feast of St. Luke, the Physician (Oct. 18), at 9 am.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE GATHERINGS

This year, our Parish C.W.L. has set aside dates for our monthly gatherings so that our members can mark their calendars and plan to attend. Topics and Programs will be developed as the members indicate their interests to us.

All Gatherings will take place after the 10:30 am Sunday Mass on the following dates"

October 23th - "Our priorities for this year"
November 20th - Msgr. Pat's "Presentation to prepare for Advent and Christmas"

--- 2023 ---

Q. Is it true that St. Luke was a physician?

A. Yes, there is reliable proof in the Bible that Luke, the writer of the third Gospel was indeed, a physician. He may also have been an artist. In his letter to the Colossians (4:14), St. Paul refers to him as his "dear friend and beloved physician". Disciple and Educated Writer

A non-Jewish person by birth, Luke wrote both his Gospel and the Book of the Acts of the Apostles not in Hebrew or Aramaic but in his native Greek. At that time, Greek was the language of education and culture. This fact also points to the fact that Luke was a well educated and cultured man. It should also be remembered that Luke was a disciple of Christ but not one of the 12 Apostles.

The Gospel and The Acts Written between 70 and 80

A.D. primarily for the benefit of a Christian convert named Theophilus (Lk. 1:1-4), his Gospel lists in an orderly way the events in the life of Christ.

Later, in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles, Luke writes the history of the early Christians after the Ascension of Christ.

A Gospel of Mercy

Luke's is a Gospel of forgiveness and compassion. Familiar stories of mercy and forgiveness peculiar to the Lukan Gospel are the stories of: The Sinful Woman (7:36-50); The Lost Sheep & Coin (15:1-10); The Prodigal Son (15:11-32); Zaccheus (19: 1-10); The Good Thief (23:39-43). The Gospel of the Poor

Luke was also a man who had a genuine love for the poor and for those considered to be the least important in society. As a result, these 2 groups are given preferential treatment in his Gospel. Persons like Zechariah, Elizabeth, the shepherds visiting the manger,

Simeon and the Prophetess, Anna, are mentioned only in Luke's Gospel only This is his way of reminding us that in God's eyes all are equal and those highly favoured by the Lord are not necessarily the rich and the wise by human standards but instead those who "hear the Word of God and keep it".

Luke also has an aversion to violence and refrains from describing very violent events in the life of Christ. St. Luke's Feast is on October 18th. He is the Patron of Physicians and is represented in art as the winged Ox, an animal of Christian sacrifice.
